To Go To Blue Ridge

Off to Blue Ridge! The day has almost arrived when four lovely maidens will go prancing down to the Y. W. C. A. camp at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. The girls chosen to represent cabinet are Mary Lou Wilcox and Elizabeth Hall, better known as Wiz. The Freshman Class is also sending two Y. W. representatives, Jane Waugh and Nancy Brooker. The latter girls are both on the new cabinet and have been active members of Freshman Commission.

Blue Ridge will mean much to each of these girls as individuals, and as a group, they will bring back many suggestions for the coming year. At Blue Ridge leaders in Y. W. work gather and discussions are held on many subjects pertaining to Christian activities on the college campus.

Class Song '39

Farewell to thee Alma Mater we sing,
Long may our echo resound
'Mid the shade of tall stately columns

Here on this sacred ground.
We thank you for the work and play,
For the joys that come each year,
For the friendships true,
Of our classmates too,
And for all our teachers dear,
They will last throughout our whole life long.

And now our work is done
Our hearts are filled with the memory
Of Mary Washington.

The above song, which will be sung on Senior Class Day, was written by: Helen Hyde, chairman, Virginia Jones, Elizabeth DuPre, and Mary Lou Monroe.

Dr. Millard Filmore Combs Will Be Baccalaureate Speaker

Jr. - Sr. Prom
To Be Held
Tomorrow Night

Melodiers Will Play

"Steve"
To Lead Figure

The annual Junior-Senior Prom scheduled for May 27 will be held on the roof garden from nine until 12 o'clock. The "Melodiers" from Washington, D. C., will furnish music. After the dance there will be a buffet supper in Seacobeck Hall at which time sandwiches, punch, and cake will be served.

Virginia Fiske is chairman of the decoration committee. The color scheme will be attractively carried out with peonies and ferns.

The figure will be led by Leighton Stevens, Junior Class president and next year's student body president.

The prom is really a ring dance for the Junior Class at which time they receive their Senior Class rings.

LUCK!

Complete Senior
Calendar, Includes
Moving Up Day,
Banquet, Play, Class
Day and Graduation

The senior calendar completely filled for the last week of the quarter will start Sunday, May 28, with the Baccalaureate Service. Dr. Millard Filmore Combs, brother of Dr. M. L. Combs, will speak at that time by special request of the Senior Class.

Monday, May 29, will be moving up day at which time the Juniors receive their caps and gowns and all classes move up a year. Provided the weather permits, the main ceremony for the affair will be held in the open air theatre.

On Friday the Mary Washington Alumnae are giving the Senior Class a banquet. At eight o'clock that night the Mary Washington Players will present "Twelfth Night" in the open air theatre. At ten o'clock the alumnae are giving a dance in honor of the graduates.

Class Day activities will commence at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, June 3.

After the recessional in the amphitheater Jeanne Johnson, president of the Senior Class, will give the welcome address. Her talk will be followed by:

Class Prophecy Ruth Flippo
Class Will Charlotte Hall
Class History Bid Bodwell
Farewell Miriam Carpenter
Dr. Morgan Combs will receive the class gift to be presented by Mary Burgess.

The Kiwanis cup to be given to the most outstanding senior will be awarded by Mr. Claude Pracell, president of the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce.

Commencement exercises start at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, June 3. Mr. Blake Newton of the State Board of Education will address the graduates at that time.

YWCA To Entertain Seniors At Tea

The Y. W. C. A. is entertaining the Seniors at a tea Sunday afternoon on the East Lawn of Monroe from 4 to 5. This will be the last Y. W. Tea of the year.

The color scheme for the tea will be blue and white, the college colors. Invitations, in the form of diplomas, tied in blue ribbons were issued to each senior.

Mary Estes will pour. She will be assisted by all the members of new cabinet. The tea is formal and the myriad of lovely colored garden frocks will make an enchanting picture against the beautiful setting of the East Lawn.

KEYHOLE KOMMENTS

Sally Edwards' one and only, Jim Hawkins of V. P. I., was up on the "hill" this week-end.

Peggy Shuler is wearing a Fraternity pin of N. C. State.

What's this between you and Lyle McFall, Alice Brady?

From numerous reports going around there are going to be quite a few dates on the "hill" this week-end.

Frances Sutherland is going to finals at V. P. I. in June.

Tommy Eubank is not from Hampden-Sidney but from Hampton, Virginia. Sorry! As we all know he visits Bapple.

Pat Peterson will be seen at U. of Richmond finals.

Last Tuesday night Ernie Smaling was up to see Elizabeth Manning.

Kay Meyers just got that "special" from Bobby Lake. Things seem to be running smooth now.

Sis Cooper has at last made up her mind as to where her heart belongs. Annapolis.

Abco comes up real often from Orange to see Kitty Hundley.

Fay's heart beat was up to see her last week-end. We hear that he made a big hit, at the dance, on the roof garden.

Don Voyage to the Freshmen who are not coming back next year. We will miss you so do come back and visit us.

Lucille Cutchin is waiting for Jack Yeverton who is expected up sometime this week.

Virginia Morgan we do think that George is cute. Why didn't you have him up sooner?

Roy Bowman was up to see Hannah Greshell last week-end. Another one of those U. Va. fellows.

Lucille Cutchin, Wayne Hoops, Jamie Miller and Tess Wilkins are to attend June German in Rocky Mount, N. C., the 9th.

The Battifields came out tonight, Wednesday, and each girl is busy getting her friends to sign. Some day old memories will be brought back.

Guess that is ALL till next year. Solong and it has been swell working with you.

—Tess Wilkins.

Virginia Hall Keyholes

Guess what? Eugenia's Charlie is coming up for her we think! How many more hours is it Clarke?

Jamie won't get back to Alabama anytime this summer if she doesn't stop prom trotting—Hampden Sydney this time, oh!

Ding-a-ling; 7:15. Miss Hodnett, ole faithful, manages to remind Annette, that he's still in town.

Just think Audrey Marcey won't have but one more Wednesday for Charlie to come up.

What about Myra Birchett's new heart beat! What about O. A. O?

Ask Lucy if her big ambition really is to go to Annapolis—and the ring dance does sound good.

Could Mary Patton get along without wonderful Harry's telegrams and frequent visits?

Who's frat pin is Jane Garnett keeping safe?

Seems that the "Ouija" board had to decide for Dot Cobb which one was the one!

Did you know Mary Head had a local interest. It must be wonderful!

Wonder if 330-332 will ever get "called up"? They're such quiet children!

Adelaide R. is still enjoying an ole friend's company! More power to you!!

Ruth Garrett certainly has Jack around her little finger—lan't it sweet—here in the Springtime!

Don't tell anybody, but Virginia Bray is in love!

Virginia Hall is the hall—the keyholes, they are good.

Do's and Don't's For Dudes and Dates

Here are the "Do's and Don'ts" for Dudes and Dates" they have just made law on the Gustavus campus:

1. Don't think common courtesy is a thing of the past; we appreciate it.
2. Don't talk about the blonde you met last summer.
3. Don't bore us with tales of athletic prowess.
4. Don't call at 5:30 for a 7:00 p. m. date.
5. Don't swear; Webster is quite adequate.
6. Don't use greasy hair oil.
7. Don't flatter yourself by assuming that mere friendliness is flirting.
8. Do have the evening partially planned, but open to additional suggestions.
9. Don't expect any expression of gratitude beyond acceptance of the date.
10. Don't expect anything but "disreputable" saddle shoes when you appear without a tie and suit coat.
11. Don't make the stereotyped fun of girls' hats.
12. Do make use of your Christmas shaving set; girls don't crave that homecoming beard.
13. Do your part to uphold a conversation which will do justice to your education.
14. Be careful about viewing your opinions unasked for—especially on feminine apparel or make-up; this is obnoxious.
15. We don't want to seem too critical, but, fella, if you want a date to click, take a gander at the above and put it in practice.

Dance Orchestra Entertains

The Mary Washington dance orchestra, which has established an unprecedented name for itself this year, had a supper party Thursday evening. Tonight the orchestra will play for the Freshman-Junior dance.

Throughout the year the members of the orchestra have officiated at many college dances and have added greatly to the social life of the campus.

Under the direction of Mr. Ronald Faulkner, the orchestra has steadily improved and become a firm establishment at Mary Washington.

Final Cast For "Twelfth Night" Announced

Orson Wells's version of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will be presented as this year's Senior Play. Production is well under way and performance will be given on Friday evening, June 2. Weather permitting, the play will be dramatized in the open-air theatre; in the event of bad weather, however, it will take place in the high school auditorium.

The play is expected to be one of the best ever produced at M. W. C. All members of the staff have been hard at work for some time; costumes have been ordered from Philadelphia.

Admission will be by invitation, which may be obtained from Mr. Weiss, director of the play, or any cast or Dramatic Club member.

Lee Wingate Keith, president-elect of the Dramatic Club, will assist with the direction.

The cast is as follows:

Feste Lois Firth
Duke Orsino Becky Biddlestone
Curio Georgianna Woodhouse
Valentine Stella Miles
Viola Nancy Lee Haley
Sea Captain Mary E. Welsh
Sir Toby Henrietta Roberts
Maria Katherine Roberts
Sir Andrew Marjorie Edminston
Olivia Sarah Dodd
Malvallo Mary Ann Black
Sebastian Ethel Twyford
Antonio Nancy Herr
Fabian Carol Jordan

TELEVISING OF PLAYS

Televising of plays on Sunday has been protested on the ground it is unfair to theaters, which cannot give stage performances on that day.

Looking Back

(By Grethel Preble)

We freshmen started out last September as beginners on a pavement we had never before treaded. We met new people. We faced new obstacles. We were annoyed over difficulties at first, but then we conquered them with a defiant, challenging, but sincere manner. We have made friends. We have studied. We have played. We have laughed. We have cried. We have been praised. At times we have even been slighted. We have often thought of home with a longing feeling, and we have known that we must make ourselves worthy of that home. From these circumstances we have formed theories concerning life. They are but embryonic speculations, but they are immeasurably valuable in that they will have all power over our more mature being.

We have learned to appreciate the finer things of the world, and to respect them with a broader, deeper, philosophic meaning. We have dismissed the trivialities; they lie in a remote corner. We have ushered in the essentials; they rise to prominence. The greatest feat of all—we have started living with purpose and intent. We know now that life is what we ourselves make it. We have been freshman at college. Have we not walked over the preliminary trail to gain that glorious summit?

"Billy Goats Will Shine Tonight"

"Billy Goats will shine tonight—" at a mass frolic given on the roof garden by the freshmen in honor of the juniors. At 8 o'clock the Washingtonettes, college dance orchestra, will begin beating it out, and various forms and descriptions of swing and jive will commence. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The dance is to be informal and will last until 10 P. M.

JEANNE JOHNSON

Jeanne, our Senior Class President, is 19 years old. Jean has been here at Mary Washington College only three years, being a transfer from Brenau College in Georgia, her Sophomore year. She is majoring in music and minoring in Commercial and Psychology.

Jeanne's favorite pastime is analyzing people. She likes to play ping pong and tennis. She is a good dancer, likes to swim and ride horseback. "Only," she added, "I can't stay on." And we all know how well Jeanne plays the piano.

Jeanne's heart interest is at V. P. I. I spotted a 1938 license plate hanging on the wall. I was informed that Bill had also sent that. Jeanne has a passion for broiled lobster and Kay Kyser is her favorite orchestra leader.

At Brenau, Jeanne was a member of Alpha Chi Omega, national sorority.

Jeanne has two sisters and a brother. Jeanne declares that her brother, who is 9, looks like her. Jeanne, you must bring him up here sometime, and let us look at him.

We know Jeanne has a job next year teaching at Fairfax, so we hope to see her down here lots, weekends. Her ambition, after teaching for a couple of years, is to get married.

Jeanne is a member of the Cotillion Club, Leaders Club, Commercial Club, Y. W. C. A., and the Bullet Staff.

Mary Ellen Seaborn, and Frances Keister went home to Alexandria with Polly Stephenson.

Bobbie De Pass spent last weekend in Annapolis where she attended the dances at the Naval Academy and had "one swell time."

Jane Donnelly ventured to Richmond on Sunday for the day.

Betty Carter spent the week-end at her home in Falls Church.

Jean DeCoss had as her house guest this week-end her room-mate Kitty Carlson, while Margaret Britton spent the week-end in Washington. Kitty also attended the dances at Hampden Sidney recently.

Jerry Edmondson and Mary Sides spent Saturday in Richmond.

Margaret Minter was the guest Sunday of Mrs. Beck.

Bobbie Lyon and Mary Jean Beatty motored over Skyline Drive on Sunday. Bobbie also spent the week-end recently in Connecticut.

Apartment 27, Betty Lewis, had a surprise party the other night all for themselves. Why don't you invite us the next time?

Jean Ivory was in Washington for the week-end.

Mrs. Guy Roop visited her daughter Helen Dale on Sunday.

Martha Minges had as her guest for the week-end her mother, Mrs. M. O. Minges and her brother, Max Minges, and Miss Mabel Edwards.

Joe Ewing, better known as "Cuddles" had him up again this week-end, and then she received a letter from him on Monday. Quick work, eh, Jo?

"Shorty" Rice will trip up to Blacksburg for the finals at V. P. I.

Marguerite Gregory is confined to the infirmary with the flu.

Mrs. E. W. Hansel of Orlando, Florida, arrived Thursday to visit her daughter, "Kacky", until the end of the term.

Laura Holman and Elizabeth Denny will attend the finals at Washington and Lee University.

This is closed week-end so no one is leaving for the week-end.

Jay Field is going to Washington for the day.

Miss Camille Spicer of Charlottesville was a visitor on the "hill" last week-end. We enjoyed having you Camille.

Sis Cooper is leaving for the World's Fair from school. She plans to stay in N. Y. about two weeks.

Tess Wilkins' mother, father, and brother were up last week-end.

Miss Mary Alice Terman attended a Garden Party at Kenmore Saturday afternoon.

"Family Club" Is Organized

At MWC

Jane Day Is President Of New Club

A new club was started the other day, called the Family Club. The purpose of this one is to keep track of all the graduates as far as matters of the heart are concerned. To each bride will go a gift and the best wishes of the M. W. C. Family Club.

The club is sponsored by Dr. Molly Scott and the leaders are the following: Jane Day, president; vice president, Virginia Reel; secretary, Margaret McCulloch; and treasurer, Ruth Anderson.

By-laws are being drawn up to determine the length of membership, duties of the officers and the status of the members.

Will all students who have previously taken the Family and are willing to join the club, please notify either Miss McCulloch, the secretary, or Dr. Scott?

Ella Harrison Elected Prexy Of Home Ec. Club

Other Officers Chosen Thursday

On Thursday, May 18, at the regular meeting of the Home Economics Club, the officers for the 1939-40 school term were elected and installed.

Miss Ella Harrison of Sharp, Virginia was elected President. She was graduated from Farnham High School where she was a member of the Junior League. Miss Harrison, in addition to the Home Economics Club, is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and Science Club on the hill.

Other officers elected were: Vice President, Betty Whitacre; Secretary, Virginia Davis; Treasurer, Maxine Morea; Reporter, Rosa Lee Johnson; and Parliamentarian, Virginia Reel.
